REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-22 are allowed over the prior art of record. Current invention teaches a switch assembly having a housing with a first and a second ledger, and a control member having a first and a second shoulder. The first shoulder and the first ledger contact each other in response actuation to the control member in a first direction. Claimed should and ledger contact, as claimed, in combination with the claimed limitation of the base claim 1, are neither disclosed nor suggested by the prior art of record. Regarding claims 12 and 17, Applicant's argument are persuasive and therefore, are incorporated into this "Reasons" in its entirety. Regarding claim 21, current invention teaches a switch assembly having a projection extending from a housing and where a flexible tab extends from the control member. Claimed structure, in combination with the claimed limitations of the base claim are neither disclosed nor suggested by the prior art of record.
2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
